Dear Customer,

I am proud to share the news with you that Modern Investment Casting Company and Alpha Investment Casting, LLC, two long standing and trusted names in our industry, are coming together to create Oklahoma's largest and most experienced investment casting foundry.

The combined organization will be operating as Alpha Investment Casting, LLC in Tulsa, Oklahoma. It will continue to provide all new and existing customers with the same quality and service that our customers are accustomed to. This will be accomplished by combining experienced key personnel and utilizing the same controls proven by past history for each part manufactured.

Alpha Investment Casting, LLC is a long time ISO 9001 certified and PED compliant company. Our business will continue to be customer focused and to continuously improve while setting the standard for the investment casting industry. The combined experience of the companies, past expansions at our Tulsa facility, and using the latest technology will allow us to:

- Provide a better technical service for our customers
- Add significant increases to production capacity
- Schedule more effectively to accommodate expedite requests
- Reduce lead times for production runs
- Work closer with customers on cost reductions and new designs
- Minimize the risk of our customers dealing with part shortages
- Become more efficient
